The Wild reflects the captivating essence and unique taste of the Varveris family, who hold a deep affection for Mykonos Island. Their vision was to capture and preserve Mykonos's essence – a place that is wild at heart, enchanting, unspoiled, effortlessly chic, and simultaneously brimming with culture, vibrancy, and cosmopolitan charm. Philip Varveris elaborates, “We aimed to encapsulate the energy of this charming Cycladic island, adored by artists, free spirits, and discerning travellers alike, for countless years.” Philip, alongside his older brother Alex, serves as the visionary mind behind The Wild, carefully curating its concept and design while acknowledging the invaluable contribution of their exceptional team of collaborators.

The serene haven in The Wild invites guests to bask in the tranquillity and embrace the beauty of crystal-clear waters. Stylish sunbeds provide a comfortable spot to unwind while savouring delectable healthy delicacies. The swimming pool, with its panoramic views of the Aegean Sea, creates an idyllic setting for relaxation and socializing. Indulge in various refreshing beverages, from artisanal cocktails to freshly pressed juices, or savour the rich flavours of expertly brewed coffee.
